J. B. WALKER
PASSES AWAY

Died Thursday Night at Dr. Fort's Sanitarium In Nashville.

WAS BORN IN PADUCAH, 1857

Remains Arrived Here Last Night, Funeral This Afternoon.

The sisters of Mr. J. Burch Walker were apprised last Thursday night of Mr. Walker's death, which occurred between 8 and 9 o'clock, at Dr. Fort's sanitarium, Nashville. The remains arrived here yesterday evening on the 6:52 Dixie Flyer and were taken to the residence of the Misses Walker, on South Virginia street. Funeral services will be held at the Misses Walker's residence this afternoon at 2 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. E. Gabby and Dr. C. M. Thompson. Interment in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Walker's death was primarily caused by stomach trouble, from which he suffered greatly for some time before he was taken to Dr. Fort's Infirmary. The Doctor did not offer Mrs. Walker any encouragement for her husband's recovery.

Joseph Burch Walker was the only son of Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Walker and was born in Paducah, Ky., February 12th, 1857. His father was pastor of the First Baptist church of Paducah when his son was born and came to Hopkinsville not long after.

The deceased started out in life as office boy in the office of the Hopkinsville Conservative (now the Kentuckian) where he learned the printing business. He had decided talent for mechanics and left the office and served a couple or more years as fireman on the L. & N. railroad.

November 27th, 1887, he married Miss Lula Gary, daughter of Mr. R. S. Gary. After his marriage he took up the life of a farmer. He was the best farmer along scientific lines in the county. He was known all over this and other states as such and delivered lectures at the call of agricultural organizations in different states of the Union, besides year after year being put into the lecture field by the Commissioner of Agriculture of Kentucky. As a farm machinery expert he had few equals. He is survived by his wife and three children, William B. and Misses Laura and Janie Walker, and two sisters, Misses Eudora and Eugene Walker, of this city.

Mr. Walker was at one time commissioner of the Western Asylum and was for many years a member of the Democratic Committee of Christian County. Until a few years ago he lived on a fine farm a few miles west of town, which he sold and had since lived just outside the city on the Palmyra pike.

He was one of the most prominent men of the county and was active in the work of the Church Hill Grange and in agricultural matters generally. His last work in this line was in a series of lectures delivered in the state of Connecticut and throughout Kentucky about two years ago. For almost a year he had been in failing health.

Killed By a Negro.

Paducah, Ky., March 14.—Argument over a supper, followed by the murdered man calling the negro a liar, resulted in H. B. Duncan, fifty years old, travelling salesman for the Sutherland Medicine Company, of Paducah, being killed Tuesday night by Allan Edmonds, a negro cook in a saloon. Edmonds crushed Duncan's skull with a beer bottle and he fell to the floor a corpse.

Edmonds was immediately arrested and placed in jail.

Duncan leaves his widow, and five children, who are in New Mexico, where he traveled. He formerly resided in Birmingham, Ky.

THE BIG CONTEST CLOSES
ONE WEEK FROM TONIGHT

The Large Extra Vote Offer of 18,000 Extra Votes With Each $10 Ends With Today.

REWARDS FOR EVERY ONE.

Work Today and Roll Up a Big Reserve Vote For the Final Count--There Is Honor and Profit in Winning.

One week from today the Kentuckian big piano and diamond contest will come to successful end and the six costly prizes will be awarded to as many ladies.

Tonight the opportunity of 18,000 extra votes with each $10 club will close, and as only a few extra votes will be allowed next week, contestants should realize that effective work should be done today while this big offer is in force. The opportunity closes tonight, and no contestants should let it pass without out bettering her condition for success.

There is honor and profit in winning. You have made a good fight and now that the end is drawing near your enthusiasm and determination to win should increase. You should make up your mind that you will not be defeated if effort and work will prevent. Let your friends know that you need their help and need it today, while you can secure 18,000 extra votes with each $10. Figure what a few five or ten year subscriptions will do for you and secure several of this class. You can find them if you will look for them, and now is the time to turn them in.

Rewards For Every One.

The Kentuckian has made an arrangement with the representative of the Harding & Miller Music Co. Mr. J. W. Lawson, where by we will give to every candidate who works to the end of the contest and fails to win one of the prizes, a certificate purchase price of any new piano or good for one hundred dollars on the player piano in their stock. This certificate will be transferable and if you do not care to purchase a piano you may sell it to some other person. This is a guarantee that every one who works to the close of the contest will receive a reward for her efforts.

Notice To Contestants.

No more free votes will be published after today and all the 100 vote coupons must be in the hands of the contest manager by Tuesday March 18. This positive and none of the free votes will be counted after the above date.

The last count of ballots will be made by the contest manager Wednesday March 19, and the result published in the Thursday issue following. From that time all will be secrecy as no information whatever will be given out regarding the standing of any contestant. Contestants who wish to have any part of their votes counted in Thursday issue must turn them in to the contest manager not later than next Wednesday noon. Contestants who desire to verify all votes counted by the contest manager by applying to this department not later than Wednesday night March 19. We feel that every contestant feels assured of all votes having been counted correctly, and this opportunity is offered any one who may have a doubt, to become satisfied.

EVANGELISTIC
SERVICES

Dr. Belk Heard by Large and Appreciative Audience Thursday Night.

CHILDREN'S SPECIAL SERVICE

Evangelist Will Preach Tomorrow Morning and Night.

The sermon preached by Dr. Belk at the Westminster Presbyterian church Friday night on "What Presbyterians Believe" was heard by a large and appreciative audience. When the evangelist takes up the faith of Presbyterians he is thoroughly at home and no one can hear him without being convinced that he has made a most careful study of the doctrines of the church.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock, a special service will be held for the children of the city. Parents should see that the little ones are there on time.

The officers and pastor of the church have not determined yet about continuing the services next week.

TOBACCO MARKET

Receipts Continue Heavy and Demand Still Strong.

The local tobacco market this week underwent no change either in receipts, demand or prices, unless there was a slight drop in prices. A tobaccoist stated during the week that the buyers thought they paid too much and the sellers complain that they are not getting enough, which goes to show that it is impossible for either side to be perfectly contented, especially when it comes to selling and buying tobacco.

During the entire week the deliveries to the Regie, Imperial and other large warehouses have been coming in from half a dozen surrounding counties, some of them 40 or more miles away. Many of our own farmers, now that they are through with preparations beginning another year's crop, have resumed delivering the old crop. The loose floors are having all they can do in taking care of the weed as it comes in and putting it on the market.

IN BURLEY DISTRICT.

AT LEXINGTON—The market was easy, especially under the $12 class. Receipts were light. Prices ran from $2 @ $23.

AT CARLISLE—The market closed for the season Wednesday, with practically no tobacco in the hands of the farmers.

AT SHELBYVILLE—Sales were much lighter and prices ranged from $3 @ $24. Lowest grades were under former quotations.

AT MAYSVILLE—Market showed some improvement over the first of the week. The up price was $19.25. The most inferior quality sold as low as $1.20 per hundred.

AT RICHMOND—Market slow. One house sold 30,000 pounds, at an average of about $10 per hundred. The highest price paid was $14.

Meet at Madisonville.

The West Kentucky High School track meet this year will be held at Madisonville, prospects being for the biggest and best meet the high schools have ever held. The first place winners will go to Lexington to compete in the state meet against the Lexington High, Louisville Manual, Louisville High, Newport High, Covington High and Owensville High. The high schools that will enter the contests at Madisonville are: Paducah, Madisonville, Hopkinsville, Owensboro, Henderson and Dawson Springs. The date of the meet will be announced in a few days.

Mrs. Robt. Johnson, after a visit to Miss Fannie Phelps, returned to her home in Middleboro Wednesday.

FINE ATTRACTION

Was Snow White at Rex Theatre Last Wednesday.

The Rex has, during its first five months of business, put before the people a number of special attractions that drew capacity houses. It may be said that when it presented "Snow White" Wednesday afternoon and night it touched the keynote of success financially as well as for pleasing the multitude. Miss Elsie Albert in the title role was simply perfection and all that was missing was the sound of her voice to make it a perfect piece of work. The wicked Queen, whose ambition was to be the prettiest woman in the realm, was a grand piece of acting in a most difficult role. Though the audience had no sympathy for her yet they could not help but admire her as an actress. Altogether the play as to scenery, setting of stage and support was about as good as was ever put on here by the movies.

Manager Will Grau is well keeping up his promise made at the opening of the Rex last fall, to give the people the very latest and best movies. It is probable that his next special attraction will be "The Crimson Cross," a 3-part Eclair, which is a drawer, wherever it goes.

$10,000 AUDITORIUM

To Be Built at Dawson and Ready For Next Season.

Attorney John T. Edmunds has just completed the articles of incorporation of a company to build a $10,000 auditorium at Dawson. W. I. Hamby is president. The articles of incorporation will be sent to Frankfort at once. The plans are completed and bids will be received in a short time. The building is to be completed by the first of June, as the Kentucky State Pharmaceutical Association is to hold its annual meeting there during June. The seating capacity is 1,000. The Forbes Mfg. Co. has just completed an addition to the New Century Hotel, costing $30,000, will probably put in a bid for the contract.

$1,406.50 WORTH

Of Sheep Killed In This County Last Year.

Some people are very fond of dogs and think they ought to be permitted to run at large at will and at all times. A good dog is worth something and ought to be protected. People who are in Mr. Dog's neighborhood ought to be protected, too. Sheep-killing dogs ought to be exterminated and a premium should be put on their heads dead.

In 1912 110 people of this county lost sheep by dogs. The total value of the sheep killed was $1,406.50. That amount of money is now in the hands of County Clerk Stowe. He received a warrant from the Auditor of State a day or two since and persons entitled to reimbursement for their losses are asked to call on Mr. Stowe and get a check for their money.

The claims allowed run from 50 cents up to $201. Thos. M. Barker was the heaviest loser. Next comes George Boddie with a loss of $200. Other large amounts range from $100 down.

Robert Louis Stevenson Thought That Ability to Converse Pleasantly Had Much to Do With It.

And it is more important that a person should be a good gossip, and talk pleasantly and smartly of common friends and the thousand and one things of the day and hour, than that she should speak with tongues of men and angels; for a while together by the fire happens more frequently in marriage than the presence of a distinguished foreigner to dinner.

That people should laugh over the same sort of jests, and have many a story of "grouse in the gunroom," many an old joke between them which time cannot wither nor custom stale, is a better preparation for life, by your leave, than many other things higher and better sounding in the world's ears. You could read Kant by yourself, if you wanted; but you must share a joke with someone else.

You can forgive people who do not follow you through a philosophical disquisition; but to find your wife laughing when you had tears in your eyes, or staring when you were in a fit of laughter, would go some way toward a dissolution of the marriage.—From "Virginibus Puerisque," by Robert Louis Stevenson.

MARRIAGE A MONEY CONTRACT

Paris Judge Says Mutual Love Is No Longer the Motive, as in the Past.

Passing judgment in a breach of promise case recently the president of a Paris court expressed the view that marriage no longer responded to the conception of former times, when it was based on mutual love. Today it was simply a financial contract.

The real reason of marriage, he said, was money. The man was on the "lookout" for the dowry and the woman "bought" a protector and a trustee for the management of her property. It was regrettable that young couples did not draw up a contract at the moment of their engagement—with a penalty clause in the event of it being broken off.

We Have Just Secured at a Very Large Expense a "POLK-GENUNG-POLK SYSTEM" Machine for the Construction of

Monolithic Concrete Silos and Tanks

This is the finest, most substantial, up-to-date patented system in the United States for this purpose. We have the exclusive building rights in your counties. We build these structures out of properly mixed concrete and re-inforce them with the best of steel doors, which are air-tight, so that when we finish you have a silo that is air-tight, water-tight, fire-proof, vermin-proof, cold weather proof, wind-proof, smooth on the inside and which will keep your silage at a constant and even temperature. You will have absolutely NOT ONE CENT OF MAINTENANCE COST AT ANY TIME.

A Silo will save 40 PER CENT. of your fodder nutriment, which means that you can use 40 PER CENT. of your present fodder acreage for other crops.

A Silo will keep you in the front rank with the progressive farmer, and while you are doing it place a water tank on top, with pipes running to it that will not freeze. Write for our brief booklet on Silos, which has valuable information in it. Let us come and see you.

THE VALUE OF GOOD WILL

If you can't satisfy you can't sell--very long. That's a fixed rule. Nothing convinces the thinking purchaser like citing him a friend or acquaintance who has and is getting good thorough satisfaction out of a piano you once sold him.

For twenty years the backbone of our business has been good will--good will gained by giving every man a full hundred per cent value for his dollar--an instrument of sterling worth, no matter what he paid for it.

"Sterling worth" does not necessarily mean a high price. "No matter who you are or what you have to spend--we have the right instrument at the right price."

Look over this line of Pianos and Players carefully and see if you can find one to suit you at remarkably low prices. The reduction includes everything.

Plum Tree Shaken.

Washington, March 12.—Nomination sent to the senate by President Wilson included:

First Assistant Postmaster General—Daniel C. Roper of South Carolina.

Third Assistant Postmaster General—Alexander M. Dockery of Missouri.

Fourth Assistant Postmaster General—Jas. I. Blakeslee of Pennsylvania.

United States Judge, District of Porto Rico—Peter J. Hamilton of Alabama.

Commissioner of Labor Statistics—Chas. P. Neill of the District of Columbia.

After a brief executive session in which the nomination of John H. Marble to be a member of the interstate commerce commission was confirmed and the nominations made by President Wilson, were referred to committees, the senate adjourned until Tuesday.

Feels Good Over Prospects.

Col. Josh T. Griffith, of Owensboro, passed through Louisville, en route home from the inauguration at Washington, feeling mighty good over his prospects of being the next Collector of Internal Revenue for the Second district. He was accompanied to Washington by Mrs. Griffith, who is if anything a better politician than with the local politicians, all of whom Griffith is assured of the endorsement of Senator James and other members of the delegation in Congress and relief on this to "put him over." The dopesters on "form" pick him to succeed Collector Lawson Reno.—Louisville Times.

Memphis Sky-Scraper.

Memphis, Tenn., March 11.—Announcement was made today that a company of Memphis capitalists had been organized to take over valuable down-town property and construct a 22-story office building at a cost of over $1,000,000, including ground value. It will be known as the Railroad Exchange building and in it will be located offices of all lines retaining headquarters in Memphis. On the ground floor will be the city ticket office of the Louisville & Nashville, the Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis, and other roads.

Seems Like Spring.

With the mercury playing around the spring temperature mark in the tube, buds on the maple trees swollen until the leaves are ready to open out, the music of the robin and the redbird heard in the early morning, with the piping of the blue jay, the blooming of the crocuses, the boys spinning, the wild geese flying Southward, children on roller skates monopolizing more than their share of the sidewalks, besides many other almost infallible signs almost forces us to say that spring is here—maybe.

GOLF CADDIES MAKE POINTS

Somehow, Following the Ball Seems to Whet the Observation of the Carriers of Clubs.

One day as Mr. Buford was going out for a round at St. Andrews he waved genially as he passed to a caddy of his acquaintance, who returned the wave with that nonchalant of the gamins which is said to be next to the case of a cultivated gentleman. The writer's friend observed: "I see you know Mr. Balfour?" "Ou—ay," said the caddy, "us coisairvatives a' kens ane anither."

Once upon a time in a northern golfing city the law was administered by a sheriff of great kindness of heart. He had a favorite caddy, a sad poacher in his spare hours. This worthy was known on the links by his Christian name alone. One fine day in court the sheriff sentenced a poacher who failed to appear at the bar, $15 or three months. A warrant was at once made out for the offender's arrest, the court rose and the sheriff went to golf.

All that afternoon the caddy carried for him. As they drew near the last hole a policeman appeared and seized the caddy. "My hat!" cried the sheriff, "are you the poor chap I sentenced this morning?" It was even so. Sorrowfully the prisoner departed. The sheriff was heard to murmur: "If I had only known—" Then remembering his high legal office he left the remark unfinished.

Of the caddy's contempt for lesser callings than the golfer's there are many examples. A professor was making a very poor show on the green. The caddy eyed him loftily and then sighed: Ay, ay, professor, ye may be verra fine at the mathematics, but—it takes a man o' genuine abeillity tae be a gowfer.—Windsor Magazine.

DEFINITE VALUE OF CLOTHES

Writer's Remarks Will Call Forth Criticism Both For and Against Ideas That He Advocates.

According to Professor Patton of the University of Pennsylvania, a girl who spends $10 on a hat, although she earns but $8 a week, is more respected than is a girl who wears a dowdy hat and saves her money for her old age. The girl who wears the $10 hat will receive more attention than she of the dowdy hat, will make more impression on the opposite sex, and run a better chance of securing a life partner who will be able to supply her with numerous $10 hats. The question of morality does not figure in this controversy between the professor and the women readers of the newspapers. From the millinery viewpoint, she of the $10 hat is respected because she desires to wear good clothes and good millinery, and should be encouraged to save as much as she can out of her $8 per in order to secure them, says Millinery Trade Review. She of the dowdy hat will grow stingy as she grows older, and the rainy day toward which she is saving will find her a lone occupant of a hall bedroom, without those associations that make a girl's life worth the living. Spend less money on matinees, theaters, confections and knickknacks, and more on millinery, and the invitations to theaters, confectionery and parties will come freely from the opposite sex.

Avenging the Birds.

Bird lovers everywhere will rejoice to note the good and wholesome activity of the authorities of New York in enforcing the new law forbidding the use of the plumage of song birds and others of our useful feathered friends. A recent raid culminated in large seizures of plumage illegally offered for sale throughout the city. The seizure includes 900 humming birds, many gulls, herons and swifs. The law, which bird lovers succeeded in having passed at Albany 18 months ago, provides a fine of $25 for each piece of plumage offered for sale. It is to be hoped that no marcy will be shown these violators of a law they understand perfectly well, and of whose passage they had all been notified. The slaughter of birds to make women's adornment is mean enough in itself, and when is added the harm that is done by such killing to the crops and fruits of all kinds by lessening the number of insect eaters, the thing is absolutely indefensible.—Boston Post.

Relics of Captain Cook.

Relics of Captain Cook, the great English navigator, have been discovered at St. Petersburg. The relics were given to the governor of Kamchatka, Honolulu, by Captain Cook's party after the death of Cook. Those relics were sent by the governor to St. Petersburg, where they remained until two or three years ago, when the boxes containing them were opened, but no one knew where they came from. Luckily a professor in St. Petersburg university, who had been at Honolulu, recognized them. The relics are very choice, although there is nothing now amongst them except a black feather helmet, which is a rare curiosity.

Relief Came In Time.

Adolph Smith, the famous English sanitation expert, now visiting this country, has been a newspaper correspondent in many parts of the world, and was long associated with the London Lancet. He was in Paris during the commune, and when penniless and facing starvation came into the possession of a comparatively recent English journal whose news contents he translated and sold to a French publisher, receiving enough money to buy horse meat for his sustenance during the remainder of the siege.

PENSION LAW

Capt. Stone Tells What Steps He Has Taken To Test Its Validity.

Frankfort Ky., March 14.—In a card issued Capt. W. J. Stone, Pension Agent under the Confederate Pension Act, says he thinks the highest court of the State will decide that the Pension Act is in accord with the Constitution. The card is issued to Confederate veterans, and deals with the suit to test the constitutionality of the Pension Act of 1912. It follows in part:

"To the Confederate soldiers and widows in Kentucky who have applied for pensions and their friends: I notice in the Louisville Times of the 11th a card from Gen. Bennett H. Young giving out the information that he intends to prosecute a suit to test the constitutionality of the Confederate Pension Law. For your information I want to say that as soon as the Attorney General had written his reply to the Auditor expressing doubt as to the constitutionality of that law, I at once took steps to bring a suit to test the question, and before anybody outside of the Capitol knew of the reply I had the arrangements all made, and before Gen. Young's card was written a suit had been filed in court.

RENSHAW & HARTON
No. 10 South Main St.
HOPKINSVILLE, - KENTUCKY.

"Two prominent and highly competent lawyers volunteered their services to me; James W. Blackburn, Jr., a son of one of the most gallant Confederates in the State, and Judge James H. Hazlrigg, who was himself as brave and gallant a Confederate as ever wore the gray, and who has, since the war, honored the judicial ermine of the State by his service and decisions as a Judge of the Court of Appeals. I took the necessary steps to this contest at the earliest possible moment, believing it my duty, and knowing I was in better position to do it than any one else, because of my thorough familiarity with this whole question.

"I have no objection to any and all the assistance any Confederate soldier or son of veteran may desire to render, but I want it known that I am leading in this matter, and will continue to do so until the question is decided by the State's highest court."

Tennessee Ruling.

The decision of the United States court of appeals on the bleached flour cases tried at Kansas City remands these cases to the lower court for a new trial. Pending such new trial and final decision of this matter in the United States courts the sale of bleached flour will not be contested in the state of Tennessee if the package is plainly and conspicuously labeled, so as to show that the flour has been bleached. Such statement must be as conspicuous as any other part of the descriptive matter relating to the flour, and every package of flour must bear such label. Other states will probably pursue the same course.

SENATOR JAMES

After Positions in Interior Department for Kentuckians.

Washington, March 13.—Senator Ollie James is hopeful, almost sure, that the following Kentuckians will be appointed to the important places in the Interior Department:

First Assistant Secretary, George Gardiner, of Slayersville.

Chief Clerk, George Drewry, of Louisville.

Counselor legal division, Jacob Corbett, of Wickliffe.

Senator James, accompanied by Mr. Corbett, called on Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of the Interior, today and urged that the three Kentuckians be selected for the respective posts in the department. He came away feeling that each of the aspirants has an excellent chance for appointment.

Child Marriages.

Bombay, March 14.—Four hundred weddings were celebrated simultaneously a few days ago at Surat among members of the Lewa Hunbi caste. None of the brides were over 12 years of age, the majority being from one to seven years old, while the bride-grooms varied from three to nine. Most of the contracting parties sat or lay on the laps of their parents during the ceremony, and were given sweets to keep them quiet. The caste only celebrates weddings every ten or twelve years.

The Forbes grocery is now delivering goods to its customers with a motor wagon. It started out on its first trip Wednesday. Other motor wagons will be put into use before very long.

IN MEMORIAM

Mrs. Hallie Terrill, one of Guthrie's old and most beloved women, died Saturday morning, March 8, at seven o'clock at the home of her son, Mr. Jesse E. Evans, with whom she made her home.

About four months ago Mrs. Terrill suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which she never recovered. During her long illness she bore her great suffering without a murmur and with great christian fortitude, always having a cheerful greeting and a hearty handshake for her relatives and friends who visited her during her illness.

The funeral services were conducted Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Christian church by Rev. T. T. Roberts, of Hopkinsville, assisted by Rev. W. A. Nance, pastor of the church. A large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends were assembled to pay a last tribute of respect to the deceased. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful.

After the services at the church interment took place in the Guthrie cemetery, the funeral procession being one of the largest ever seen in Guthrie.

The honorary pall bearers were Messrs. D. B. Tyler, C. D. Bouldin, Thomas Mimms, M. W. Blair, C. H. O'Brien and Kay Allensworth. The active pall bearers were six nephews of the deceased, Messrs. Charles Day Adams, Eli Adams, John Adams, James Adams, John Foard and Jesse Foard, all of Christian county.

Mrs. Terrill was Miss Hallie Adams, being born and reared in Christian county. She was born August 11, 1836, and at the time of her death was seventy-six years, seven months and twenty-eight days old. At the age of sixteen years she became a member of the Christian church and during her long and useful life she lived a consecrated christian.

In her young ladyhood she married Mr. Thomas Evans, of North Carolina. This union was blessed by two sons, Col. John T. Evans and Mr. Jesse E. Evans, both prominent and popular citizens of Guthrie. Mr. Evans was a Confederate soldier and lost his life in the Civil War. Several years after the death of her first husband, she was married to Mr. T. J. Terrill, of Virginia, who preceded her to the grave nineteen years and one month. There were no children to this union.

Besides her two sons, Mrs. Terrill is survived by one sister, Mrs. John W. Foard and two brothers, James M. Adams and W. H. Adams, all of Christian county. A FRIEND.

Circuit Court.

The time of Circuit Court is still being taken up in the trial of the Garrott will case. Up to yesterday morning but four or five witnesses for the defense had testified, the entire time having been consumed by testimony for plaintiffs since the case was called.

The grand jury will return more indictments today and will probably be dismissed for the term.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

REBELS SCORE

And Capture the Border Mexican Town of Nogales.

Nogales, Ariz., March 14.—Colonel Kosterlitzky, commanding the federal garrison at Nogales, Sonora, surrendered to General Obregon, the rebel commander, yesterday after a terrible battle which lasted throughout the day.

Casualties are not known. During the conflict several physicians on the American border were wounded. American troops were rushed here from Fort Huachuca, Ariz., and tonight 600 troopers of the Fifth cavalry are on duty along the border.

Despite protests from Lieut.-Col. Tate and Consul Simpich, many bullets struck on the American side throughout the day.

ROOSEVELT,

But Not Teddy, Gets a Place Under Wilson.

Washington, March 14.—President Wilson sent these nominations to the senate yesterday:

John Skelton Richards, of Richmond, Va., assistant secretary of the treasury.

Franklin D. Roosevelt, of New York, assistant secretary of the navy.

Beverly T. Galloway, assistant secretary of Agriculture.

Edwin T. Sweet, of Grand Rapids, Mich., assistant secretary of the commerce.

James E. Edgerton, of New Jersey, purchasing agent of the post-office department.

All were referred to committees.

Bob Taylor Lives,

In the two bright and beautiful books just issued, "Lectures and Best Literary Productions," and "Life and Career" of Senator Robert Love Taylor, handsomely illustrated, you cannot hear again his voice or see the humorous curl of his lips, that convulsed a continent with laughter, but, within the covers of these volumes, are the pictures woven of his wondrous words, and, laughing through their sunny pages, are all of the inimitable stories which he told to the multitudes. In "Life and Career," pens of genius have traced his romantic life from its morning in "Happy Valley," through his young and rosy dreams, through stress and storm, through cheering throngs, and on into the waiting shadows, loved and laurel crowned.

We expect to sell millions of these books. First edition going fast. Cloth, $2 the Volume, $4 the Set, Half Morocco, $2.75 the Volume, $5 the Set, Full Morocco, $5.50 the Volume, $10 the Set. TWO WOMEN SAVED FROM OPERATIONS

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Their Own Stories Here Told.

Beatrice, Neb.—"Just after my marriage my left side began to pain and the pain got so severe at times that I suffered terribly with it. I visited three doctors and each one wanted to operate on me but I would not consent to an operation. I heard of the good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and was doing for others and I used several bottles of it with the result that I haven't been bothered with my side since then. I am in good health and I have two little girls."—Mrs. R. B. Child, Beatrice, Neb.

The Other Case.

Cary, Maine.—"I feel it a duty I owe to all suffering women to tell what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for me. One year ago I found myself a terrible sufferer. I had pains in both sides and such a soreness I could scarcely straighten up at times. My back ached, I had no appetite and was so nervous I could not sleep, then I would be so tired mornings that I could scarcely get around. It seemed almost impossible to move or do a bit of work and I thought I never would be any better until I submitted to an operation, but my husband thought I had better write to you and I did so, stating my symptoms. I commenced taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and soon felt like a new woman. I had no pains, slept well, had good appetite and could do almost all my own work for a family of four. I shall always feel that I owe my good health to your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. HAYWARD SOWERS, Cary, Maine.

Announces For Councilman In The Sixth Ward.

Mr. Tandy D. McGee, of West Seventeenth street, is the latest entry in the contest for Councilman in the Sixth Ward. Mr. McGee is a long Democrat and will submit his claims to the Democratic voters of the ward. He is prominent in business circles, being connected with the grocery department of the Forbes Manufacturing Co., and has many friends who will give him an enthusiastic support. If nominated and elected he would make the ward a faithful and capable representative on the Council.

Great University At Louisville.

Louisville, Ky., March 12.—Members of the alumni of the medical, law and college of liberal arts departments of the University of Louisville have designated a committee to inquire as to the merits of a merger that has been proposed by Mayor W. O. Head. The consolidation would effect a number of private schools not maintained under sectarian auspices. All of these centralized, it is claimed, would give Louisville a great university and comparing favorably with Vanderbilt and other great universities of the south and middle west. The schools mentioned in connection with the merger now boast fifteen buildings with an approximate value of $1,200,000, 483 courses of instructions and 1,494 students and more than 20,000 alumni. If the consolidation goes through, the city of Louisville will likely bond itself for $1,000,000 to be available for immediate needs of the new university.

Fire Prevention Law.

A good waterworks system was installed at Murray a few months ago and at its last meeting the city council passed as a whole the code of fire prevention and building ordinances recommended by the State Fire Prevention association. These ordinances regulate building construction in a way to prevent spread of flames and to protect life. A few nights ago a fire broke out in a tobacco house and the water system, together with the fine work of the fire department, prevented the spread, and at least $150,000 of taxable property was saved.

Hopkinsville In It.

Louisville, Ky., March 14.—A permanent organization of twenty county fair secretaries was effected Tuesday and the secretaries will meet in Louisville in February of each year. Officers were elected as follows:

President—W. P. Johnson, Shelbyville.

Vice President—A. Oborson, Hodgenville.

Secretary—B. C. Nelson, Hopkinsville.

Treasurer—L. H. Thompson, London.

Talking "Movies."

The talking motion pictures are pronounced a perfect success wherever exhibited. It took Mr. Edison six years of hard study and work to perfect the last achievement of his genius. He has refused, it is said, one million dollars for this patent. Hopkinsville hasn't had any of the talkers yet, but will as soon as they can be had.

Knockout For Louisville.

Judge Walter Evans handed down an opinion in the Federal Court Monday morning in the various phases of the suit of the Cumberland Telephone Company against the City of Louisville, as argued in chambers several weeks ago. Every contention made by the City of Louisville was overruled and those of the Cumberland Company sustained.

NO ALUM, NO LIME PHOSPHATE

Paducah Wholesalers.

The Webb bill will prove disastrous to some of the wholesale whisky houses in Paducah should the United States supreme court decide it constitutional. One local firm ships about $100,000 worth of whisky to Memphis, Tenn., annually, and this trade would be effected by the bill. Some of the other firms would lose their business in Georgia and Alabama, which runs in the hundreds of thousands of dollars every year.

Webb Law Upheld.

Richmond, Va., March 12.—The application of wholesale liquor dealers for an injunction to restrain the Southern Express company from refusing to accept liquor for shipments to points in South Carolina, under the Webb-Kenyon bill, was refused today by Judge Waddill in the United States district court here.

Poor South Carolina.

Because his negro chauffeur was twice arrested for violating the speed law, Gov. Blease, of South Carolina, threatens to put Columbia under martial law.

Lawyers as Jokers.

The Hopkinsville Bar is composed of 43 attorneys, Frank Hoxe being the last sworn in, though probably not the youngest in years. As to the oldest in years and practice we might not be pardoned for making a guess, so we won't make it.

The two best jokers of the legal profession are Judge Bush and Alvan H. Clark. Circuit Judge Hanbery is fond of a joke and is no slouch of a raconteur, while City Attorney Herman Southall can come pretty near telling a story as he hears it and sometimes adds a little trimming. Judge Cook knows a good thing when he hears it and it is a good thing well told when he tells it, for he can tell it well. As to W. R. Howell "the gentleman from Trigg" when he starts to tell a story everybody listens—for he talks so loud there is no use in anybody trying to get in a word.

As to new jokes, we haven't been able to catch up with one during this term, but as it is to run some time yet, we are inclined to think that as soon as Judge Bush can spare the time to read Mrs. Post Wheeler's new book "The Valiants of Virginia," and see what the famous author has to say about Dr. Southall's mouth, etc., the able jurist will be able to evolve something really amusing about the Doctor or somebody else. By the time Dr. Southall gets through with his canvass for Councilman he will find that Judge Bush or his joke-mate, Alvan Clark, can tell him some things he never dreamed of.

But, laying aside all joking, after an experience of years spent in the court room during motion hour of mornings, when every lawyer, jurist and habitue has carte blanche to smoke his pipe or puff away at his cigar (cigarettes are barred) and send the smoke wreaths curling up to the high ceiling of the room, when the scales of justice are at a perfect poise and the Judge is putting the machinery in order for the day's grind, we love to take in the scene and watch the twinkle of the eye of "the wise men," as they in an undertone "tell one"—that may be new. We don't believe there is another

Win and Break Deadlock in New Hampshire.

Concord, N. H., March 14.—Henry F. Hollis, democrat, was elected United States Senator by the legislature yesterday. He is a lawyer and a Harvard graduate, and is 42 years old. He was an unsuccessful candidate for Governor and for Congress on several occasions. His election gives the democrats 50 Senators.

body of men anywhere who enjoy life more than the Hopkinsville bar. Even such earnest and staid men as Judge Joe McCarroll and Judge Jas. Breathitt sometimes catch the infection and are "reminded" of "one" they heard related by the lamented Grace or Landes, whose portraits, alongside that of James B. Garnett, are looking down on the talent grouped below them.

No Danger At All.

Rome, March 14.—A marked improvement was noted today in the condition of Pope Pius X, both the inflammation of the throat and the hoarseness being considerably diminished.

The pope himself said he felt much relieved and hoped that his "tyrants" would allow him to resume at an early date the ordinary course of life. The attending physicians, however, insist that he continue to rest.

Prominent Lawyer Stricken.

Frankfort, Ky., March 14.—Jas. Andrew Scott, one of the best known lawyers in the State, was stricken with illness in his office here yesterday afternoon and his condition was such that he could not be taken to his home to-night. He suffered two severe hemorrhages during the afternoon.

PAINTER WANTS NO FRIENDS

Great French Artist Lives Alone and Cares for Nothing but the Work He Loves.

Degas, who, by many, is held to be the greatest of French painters of today—his painting, "Les Danseuses a la Barre," has sold for 435,000 francs ($87,000)—is a most singular man, an anchorite in art, living apart from all the world. "When a journalist is lucky enough to be admitted to his atelier in the Rue Victor-Masson," says Le Cri de Paris, "he will be met by Degas, seated, his white head leaning upon his hand. 'What do you want with me? Oh, to talk about painting. Oh, no, monsieur, those who paint, the real workers, never talk about it. Painting is a low-voled prayer. Painting is talked about in omnibuses, or in salons, or among simpletons. You are not in the house of a simpleton, monsieur. Good day. I am very sorry.' He never shows his pictures. One sees them only at the dealers or at some great sale. He has only one friend, the great sculptor, Bartholome. He had two, but Henri Rouart is dead. He has but one adoration, Moisson Ingres. He buys the least sketch of his pencil. He exorcises the republic. This painter, perhaps the greatest of the day, is not decorated. He tossed the cross in the face of the minister who offered it to him. Quite recently one of his relatives received the red ribbon. 'The blackguard!' cried Degas, 'never let him put foot in my house!'

MIGHT MAKE USE OF EELS

Some Suggestions Worthy of Consideration by Citizens of Towns Just Now Sorely Afflicted.

The towns of Red Hook, Tivoli and Madalin are having a plague of eels. They are all near Poughkeepsie, and are dependent upon a single lighting plant which has intake pipes run out into the Sawkill.

The screening of these intakes has not been so perfected as to keep the eels out. A large run of them indicates that the Sawkill eel, at least, has a passion for machinery, or a morbid disposition. It insists on getting into the pipes and then into the works. It goes in such numbers that it clogs the machinery, and then the plant has to be shut down. While eels are being picked out of intricate junctions, the people of Red Hook, Tivoli and Madalin have to eat in the dark or light up their lamps.

Pending the perfection of screening for the intake pipes, and providing that the eels are not exterminated, a pickling plant might be introduced as a side line with the manufacture of light.

Again, if this scheme is not feasible or worthy, why not cross the Sawkill eel with the electric eel of the old world. Then, perhaps, Red Hook, Tivoli and Madalin would not be distressed.

Volcanic Dust in the Air.

From many points in America and Europe come reports of an unusual turbidity of the atmosphere, which began early last summer and still continues. This is manifested in a diminution of the intensity of solar radiation, a hazy appearance of the sky, and the presence of Bishop's ring around the sun. From Dublin Sir John Moore wrote last August: "The sky is constantly covered with a thin film of uniform cloud in which no halos develop, and through which the sun, moon and stars shine with a subdued, sickly brightness."

Observers in Russia, Switzerland, Sweden and Germany, as well as America, report an unusual lack of blueness in the sky. These phenomena are attributed to the presence in the upper atmosphere of an immense pall of dust arising from the explosive eruption of Katmai volcano, in Alaska, last June.

Similar effects were observed after the eruptions of Krakatoa and Mount Pele, and in those cases lasted for some years.

Breath of the Earth.

That the earth breathes is a fact familiar to the weatherwise. It is often to be verified by that peculiar earthy smell which arises immediately after a thunderstorm, the lowering of the barometric pressure causing the flow upward of the air, just as it is once more squeezed downward when the barometer rises. This phenomenon accounts for a natural barometer discovered at Ferney some years ago by Dr. Gerlier of Geneva. It is a deep cave, or well, with a very small opening. When this opening is made small enough just to fit a whistle the different sounds as the earth inhales or exhales the air warn people in the neighborhood of the coming weather. A lighted match or a feather shows the direction of the flow as well.

Why the Children Tell Fibs. "Children tell lies because their parents tell lies," Prof. T. S. Lowden of Ohio State university declared in explaining "The Psychology of Memory and Imagination." "The ruling principle in the child," he asserted, "is to live. Deception has always been more or less at the foundation of life. Children, however, generally lie because they do not understand, rather than for the purpose of bold deception."

Professor Lowden said Santa Claus and fairy stories were necessary in the mental development of all persons. "But we can't live with Santa Claus forever, nor can we read fairy tales forever," he declared. "We must build our air castles, then construct the more material things in life."

GOOD APPLE PUDDINGS

RECIPES FOR WHAT IS KNOWN AS QUEEN OF DESSERTS.

Dutch Style Universally Liked—
Cooked With Rice Is a Method
Many Prefer—Brown Betty an Old Favorite.

Dutch apple pudding—One pint of flour, one teaspoon cream tartar, one-half teaspoon soda, one-half teaspoon salt, one egg and a generous two-thirds cup of sweet milk. Mix the flour, cream tartar, soda and salt together and put through the sieve.
Beat the egg light and mix with the milk. Rub two tablespoons of butter into the flour and mix well with the milk and egg. Do not mold, but pour the mixture into a well-buttered pan, having the dough one inch deep in the pan. Pare four apples, cut them in eighths, stick the pieces in rows into the dough and sift on two tablespoons of granulated sugar. Bake in a moderate oven twenty-five minutes. Serve with sugar and cream or any sweet sauce.

Apple and Rice Pudding—One and one-half cups uncooked rice, two dozen small apples. Wash the rice and soak two hours in cold water. Pare and quarter the apples, wet the pudding cloth, spread it in the colander, sprinkle lightly with flour, spread on two-thirds of the rice, lay in the apples as closely as possible, then the remainder of the rice. Tie up the bag, put into boiling water and boil
one hour. Serve with molasses sauce.
Molasses Sauce—One cup of molasses, one-half cup of water, one tablespoon of butter, one-half teaspoon of cinnamon, a speck of salt, three tablespoons of vinegar. Boil twenty minutes. This is also nice for apple puddings, where cream is not plenty.

Apple Charlotte—Butter a deep earthen dish and place around the sides slices of bread cut about one inch thick, buttered and soaked in cold water. Fill the lined dish with sliced sour apples, put over them one cup of sugar, one-half cup of cold water, a sprinkle of salt and nutmeg, grated or cassia to suit the taste. Cover the apples with the slices of soaked and buttered bread, then cover with a plate and bake slowly two hours.
When ready to serve, loosen the bread from the sides with a knife, remove the plate from the top, lay the plate
you serve it on top and tip the dish bottom up and lift off the dish it was baked in. To be eaten with cream and sugar.

Baked Indian and Apple Pudding—
Two quarts of milk, one small cup of sifted cornmeal, one cup of molasses,
one tablespoon of ginger, one teaspoon of salt, butter the size of an egg, one quart of sliced sweet apples.
Put one quart of milk on the stove to heat and when hot sift the meal in, put it over the hot part of the stove to cook and stir it constantly for five minutes. Let it cook until it bubbles and thickens. Remove from the stove, add to seasoning and apples,
then add the other quart of cold milk;
stir and mix thoroughly, put into an earthen pudding dish and bake slowly four hours. After the pudding has been in the oven one hour take a spoon and stir the pudding thoroughly, as that mixes the apples, and it will not be all at the bottom of the dish. Then let it cook slowly the three hours undisturbed. Serve with sugar and cream.

Brown Betty—Butter an earthen pudding dish, cover the bottom with a layer of bread crumbs, then put in a layer of chopped sour apples, then thick layer of crumbs. Sprinkle over a little sugar, nutmeg or cassia, small bits of butter, then a layer of crumbs and alternate with the apples until the dish is full, seasoning each layer of apples with sugar, butter and spice, having the last layer crumbs when the dish is filled. Pour over one cup of cold water, cover with a plate and bake in a slow oven two hours. To be eaten with sugar and cream.

Lettuce Salad With Cheese Balls.
Two packages of Neufchatel cheese,
one-half teaspoon onion juice, two tablespoons lemon juice, one tablespoon chopped parsley, two tablespoons salt and paprika with some lettuce and French dressing; mix all the seasonings with the cheese. Make into small balls with butter padder and serve with head lettuce covered with French dressing. For a change, do not put the parsley into the balls, but chop more of it very fine and roll the balls
in it very lightly.

Fried Chicken With Rice.
Half fry a chicken. Boil a half cupful of rice in a pint of water, leaving the grains distinct, but not too dry;
the water must be boiling briskly when the rice is added. Add to the rice a heaping teaspoonful of butter and, when it cools, two well beaten eggs, a half teaspoonful of salt and pepper to taste. Put the chicken into a pudding dish, cover with the rice and bake until nicely browned in an oven not too hot.

Butter Scotch.
Butter scotch is made by mixing together two-thirds cup of molasses, one-third cup of water, one cup of sugar, one-half cup of butter and one tablespoonful of vinegar. Boil until brittle in water.

To Froth Eggs.
If you rinse a plate with cold water before breaking the eggs on it, add to them a pinch of salt and then stand where there is a current of air, you will have no difficulty in beating them to a froth.

Don't Worry--Eat.

Memphis, Tenn.—Mrs. Emma D.
Looney, of this place, says: "I suffered misery for nearly eight years,
but since taking Cardui, I am much stronger, and I haven't missed a single meal. I hardly know how to express my gratitude." Don't worry about your symptoms—Cardui doesn't treat them. What you need is strength. Cardui helps you to get it. Take Cardui, because other tonics and medicines do not contain its peculiar and successful ingredients, imported especially for its manufacture. Half a century of success, has stamped Cardui with the seal of public approval. During this time, Cardui has benefited a million women. Why not you? Try it, to-

Cure Working.

New York, March 11.—Dr. F. F.
Friedmann left this city last night for Canada, where he plans to give demonstrations of the treatment he claims will cure tuberculosis.

Dr. Friedmann's first patients in America already have improved in health, according to Dr. Max Landes-man, managing director of the People's hospital, where the Berlin physician demonstrated last week. Dr.
Landesman said the pills in the patient's chests have been greatly allayed, and their coughing has nearly stopped. He referred to the treatment as 'remarkable.'

Women Jailed.

Suffragists tried to throw petitions
into the royal coach in which King George and Queen Mary were riding to the opening of the English Parliament, but were prevented by quick action on the part of the police. Five were arrested and sent to jail.

PETROLEUM.

Petroleum was produced in a small way in California very early in the history of the country, in fact, long before it was invaded by the army of gold seekers. Mr. C. Morrell, a druggist in San Francisco, is commonly credited with being the first to attempt the distillation of kerosene from crude petroleum. This was in 1857, but several years prior to that Andreas Pico made illuminating oil from petroleum which he obtained in the Newhall region in Los Angeles county. This oil was burned, so it is said, in lamps in the Mission San Fernando.

MUST BE EXPENSIVE.

A rich Chicago manufacturer who,
on entering a London gallery, was shown a picture he thought was by Turner.

"That is a splendid Turner you have," he said to the proprietor. "I will give you £15,000 for it."

"But it is a George Chambers," he was informed "and we are only asking £500 for it!"
"Oh, that would never do for my collection," said the American. "I want something real expensive!"

The Greatest Woman.

"Who was or is the greatest woman in all history? Two hundred Kansas teachers answered the question and with enthusiasm and unanimity the judges awarded the prize to the one who made this reply: "The wife of

ing, sewing, brings up a family of

SHERMAN PLEASED THE BOY

Ingenuous Youngster Wanted to Boast of His Acquaintance With the Vice-President.

Many good stories are told of the late Vice-President Sherman. One that he told himself concerned an experience that befell him on a railway train not long after he became vice-president. He was traveling alone and went into the diner one night, to find himself seated opposite a boy of seventeen or eighteen.

The boy eyed him covertly for some time, as though trying to place him. Dinner was served and was half eaten when he accomplished
the feat. Leaning across the table,
he ventured:

"I beg your pardon, but aren't you Vice-President Sherman?"

The vice-president admitted it, and the boy radiated pleasure at the idea of dining with the nation's second official. As the waiter brought the checks, he said, timidly:

"Please, Mr. Vice-President, won't you let me pay for your dinner?"

"Why should I do that?" asked the surprised Mr. Sherman.

"Well, you see, I'm on my way home for a vacation, and if I could tell the folks I had bought the dinner for the vice-president of the United States it would be pretty fine
for me."

"And I finally had to let him pay for it," said Mr. Sherman.—Detroit Free Press.

PREPARATION

Mother—Willie, run and tell papa that dinner is most ready.

Willie—Pop's just gone over to the drug store after some of them safe side.

USED POOR JUDGMENT.

General Lapperine has just been publishing in a Paris journal some interesting experiences of the sufferings to which officers and troops are exposed in the Sahara. He cites the case of a camel postman carrying letters to the station of Hassi Tufel in 1898. He lost his way, and having pushed his beast too hard, the camel died, and he had to continue on foot.
Arriving at a sand dune not more than half a mile distant from a point from which the station could be clearly seen, the man began, however, firing his rifle as a call for help. There was a violent wind blowing and nothing was heard, and the next day the postman's body was found, surrounded by a hundred and twenty empty cartridge cases. Had he used the strength and energy required to work his rifle in struggling on it is possible he might have reached safety.

WHY HE HAD CAUGHT NOTHING

Not Bad Luck, but Old Jack Was Giving the Fishes a Rest on That Occasion.

John D. Rockefeller and a party of friends were taking a trip across country in Georgia last fall when they came to a stream which they had to cross by ferry. The ferry-man was operated by a white-haired old negro, and while they were floating across Mr. Rockefeller tried to make conversation.

"Jack," he asked the old man,
"have you caught any fish today?"
"Naw, suh," replied Jack, dejectedly.

"The fishing," observed Rockefeller, "must be pretty poor."

"I 'pees it is," agreed Jack, sadly.
"You haven't caught any fish at all?"

"That seems strange," continued
Rockefeller.

"It do," said Jack, and still his bearing was that of a man weighed down by woe.

"Well," asked Rockefeller, "why is it, do you think, you haven't caught any fish?"

"Humph," said Jack, still mournful, "I ain't been fishing today."—

ROOF PLAYGROUNDS.

One of the things that puzzle the educational authorities of London (England) is how to provide playing grounds for the elementary school children in the congested districts of the great metropolis. A solution of the difficulty that is being tried, is the provision of roof playgrounds, and a notable one exists on the top of the council school in Drury lane. A committee recently made a tour of inspection round these elevated playgrounds, when the interesting discovery was made that the air was much fresher and pleasanter
there than it was on the ground level.
At the same time for obvious reasons, the London county council would rather have the old-fashioned playing field.

OYSTER FARMS.

Hundreds of thousands of acres
are now employed in oyster farming in the great bays and sounds of the country. Oyster farming under from thirty to sixty feet of water is conducted upon an enormous scale, with great expense and labor. While the natural oysters formerly grew in creeks and estuaries, where they were somewhat in danger from the water being impure, the present oyster production extends many miles from land in great bodies of salt water, where there is no chance of contagion.

WOMEN THEN AND NOW.

We can no longer think, with Pericles, that good report for a woman means a minimum of any kind of report about her, whether for good or evil, nor with Dr. Johnson that when she speaks in public she is
"like a pig standing on its hind legs";
it is not that she does it well, but you are surprised she can do it at all. We are as proud of our famous women as we are of our famous men, and some of the best speakers in the world today are women.—University

HYDROPHOBIA.

00.000.000 to J. LeClerc Shedaker of Burlington, N. J., about to be killed because it was thought to be suffering from hydrophobia, was found to have a fourteen-inch-long blackberry stem, covered with briars, imbedded in its tongue and throat. With the briars removed,
the animal is recovering.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK EDITION OF THE NEW YORK WORLD

Practically a Daily at the price of a Weekly.

No Other Newspaper in the World Gives So Much at So Low a Price.

This is a time of great events and you will want the news accurately and promptly. The Democrats, for the first time in sixteen years, will have the Presidency and they will also control both branches of Congress. The political news is sure to be of the most absorbing interest.

There is a great war in the Old World, and you may read of the extinction of the vast Turkish Empire
in Europe, just as a few years ago
you read how Spain lost her last foot of soil in America, after having ruled the empire of half the New World.

The World, long since established a record for impartiality, and anybody can afford its Thrice-a-Week edition, which comes every other day in the week, except Sunday. It will be of particular value to you
now. The Thrice-a-Week World also abounds in other strong features, serial stories, humor, market, cartoons, in fact, everything that is to be found in a first class daily.

THE THRICE-A-WEEK WORLD'S
regular subscription price is only $1.00 per year, and this pays for 156 papers. We will give you an unequalled newspaper and the Hopkinsville Kentuckian together for one year for $2.65.

The regular subscription price of the two papers is $3.00.

COLUMBUS DEBATING

Who Will Land and Who Will Be Thrown Overboard to Be Picked Up.

With the advent of spring comes "a breaking out" of baseball fever. The breaking out is assuming an epidemic form, becoming more and more beyond control every time the Columbus teams go out to the park for practice. The visitors, while not teaching the local fans anything especially new in the national game, are showing quite clearly that they will be able to do some fine work when the season for real ball opens up. Their coming has inspired a new love for the game here and, though next week's practice will close the time of their visit, they have proven themselves gentlemen as well as players, and our people wish them great success the coming season. Some of the 34 men who fail to land may be picked up for work with the Moguls.

See W. D. Porter of the O. G. Sprouse Co., incorporated, about your next tailored suit. Suits to order $12.50 to $40.00. Suits in stock $5.00 to $35.00. If you care to save, visit us.

CANDIDATE IN TODD

Strawberry King Wants To Be
a Magistrate.

Responding to a petition signed by seventy Democrats of his district, John W. Keeling, a prominent farmer residing near Fairview, has announced as a candidate for magistrate from that district, subject to the action of the Democratic party at the coming primary. Mr. Keeling is one of the best informed farmers in the county, and is especially successful in fruit-growing, which he conducts on an extensive scale. He has always taken great interest in matters tending to the advancement of the State's agricultural interests, and is a genial gentleman and loyal Democrat.—Elkton Times.

We are authorized to announce
TANDY D. McGEE
as a candidate for City Councilman in the Sixth ward, subject to the action of the Democratic primary August 2, 1913.

COUNTY FAIRS

Organized in Louisville This Week and Will Arrange Circuit.

The Secretaries of the county fairs of Kentucky met in Louisville this week and perfected an organization. Herbert P. Johnson, of Shelbyville, was elected president, L. P. Thompson, of London, treasurer and Gordon Nelson, of this city, secretary. The object of the organization is to contribute to the success of fairs and establish as near as possible a regular circuit, after the manner of the National Association of State Fairs.

Jilted Girl Suicides.

Hawesville, Ky., March 10.—Miss Effie White, aged 20, was found in her room in this county this morning at 8 o'clock dead with a great gaping wound in her breast and an empty shotgun by her side. A note lying nearby and in her own handwriting announced that she was going to shoot herself.

She chose a time when her mother was at her neighbors on a brief call and her brothers were out in the field at work. She had a comfortable and happy home and the only reason that can be surmised for her deed is that she was devoted to a young man who recently seemed to have transferred his affections to another.

Revival.

A meeting is in progress at the Cadiz Baptist church conducted by the pastor, Rev. John Mein.

Harness!

LARGE preparations are being made for the immense crops of oats, corn and tobacco that will be planted within the next three months. The Harness question is a great factor in these crops, hence the good demand that we have for all classes of plow and wagon harness at this season. See what your needs in this line will be and let us show you the excellent values that we have to offer and wherein we can make it to your advantage to buy from us the

Wagon Harness, Plow Harness, Buggy Harness, Saddles and Bridles, to take care of your part of the planting.
